Cross Plains Trash & Treasures Merchant Regulations

- Application and fee must be submitted to Cross Plains Heritage Commission at PO Box 7, Cross Plains, TN 37049.
- Trash & Treasures setup begins at noon on Thursday, June 22, 2023. After unloading vehicles must be moved to designated parking area as soon as set up is complete. Vehicles not in designated parking area will be asked to move.
- Trash & Treasures vendors open early each morning (6:30-7:30am) and stay open as late as they wish on Friday, and usually begin to close their booth about 4:00 pm on Saturday.
- Merchandise description on the application form must provide detailed description of items to be sold at event, (antiques, collectibles, children's cloths, handcrafted items, yard sale merchandise, used books, jewelry, fresh produce, flowers & plants, etc.) Acceptance of application will be based on type of products being offered. Efforts will be made to have a variety of merchandise and to place vendors to avoid duplications, if at all possible. No vendor will be authorized to be the sole provider of any product, food or merchandise. Any variation from the merchandise listed on the application must be made in writing and approved by the Heritage Commission prior to the event. Unapproved items will be required to be removed.
- Trash & Treasures will not provide water, electricity, shade or trash collection for vendors. Portable toilets will be available in several locations in the downtown area for vendor and customer use. Please refrain from asking to use facilities at local businesses unless you are a customer in their establishment. The safety and security of your merchandise is Vendor's responsibility.
- Acceptance and placement of vendor will be determined by Heritage Commission based upon type of merchandise and physical requirements of the booth. Preference will be given to returning vendors in good standing. Booth locations will be assigned on a first come basis.
- Any Vendor caught stealing, using alcohol/drugs or conducting business in an unprofessional manner will be reported to local law enforcement and asked to leave the event. They will not be eligible for participation in future events.
- Only approved Food Vendors will be allowed to sell food or beverages at Trash & Treasures. Food vendors must meet health regulations of Tennessee Health Department and are subject to inspection by health officials during the vent. Food Vendors not already holding a food license will be subject to a one time health department fee. If Tennessee Health Department agent rejects a Food Vendor the booth fee is not refundable.
- Cancellation Policy: 100% of booth fee will be refunded if cancellation is received in writing 30 days prior to the event. No refunds will be given with less than 30 days notification.
- Vendors are responsible for maintaining cleanliness of their booth. Vendors are responsible for removing all their trash at the close of the event.
